Message from the Editor

As September begins, the cruise season shifts. Summer moves south while northern routes wind down. It's the right moment to keep guests engaged with fresh movie releases, concert specials, and seasonal favorites. Our Art at Sea collection can also transform digital displays into galleries.

In our news section, we cover onboard connectivity, still one of the hottest topics in the maritime industry and share What People Are Streaming: Data-Driven Insights.

This month's destination spotlight is Italy. From the romance of Venice and the history of Rome to the Amalfi Coast and the charm of Sicily, Italian ports deliver some of the world's most unforgettable itineraries.

Entertainment insights

What People Are Streaming: Data-Driven Insights

We analyzed August 2025 movie streaming data across five major platforms to identify emerging viewer preferences.

Audiences are gravitating toward a blend of high-concept fantasy and action franchises, nostalgia-driven sequels, and a steady appetite for animated and family-oriented films. Comfort-viewing classics are resurfacing alongside buzzworthy releases that capture viral attention, reflecting how platforms balance blockbuster exclusives with evergreen titles to engage increasingly fragmented audiences.
